A Call to Build the Kingdom

We are in a time of change...

"Great changes bring great challenges and great opportunities."

– Guy Morrell-Stinson (Founder).

"The world's systems are collapsing around us. The question the church should be asking is what about us? What is wisdom? Do we have to sink with the Titanic, or does heaven have a solution?"

Facing Reality

Reality knocked on our doors around 2020/21. It was an uncomfortable experience. Families lost their jobs. Businesses shut down, and many churches closed their doors. Similar events, of far greater magnitude, are likely to happen again - soon. Is the Christian family prepared, and what can we do to save, rescue, and rebuild?

This question is at the core of the Nehemiah Challenge. We are looking for collaboration partners to speak at, or host, mastermind events that unite, network, and educate the Christian community. At the same time, we are building our Christian business and ministry leaders to function in their God-given roles. Please contact Guy if you are a pastor, a Christian leader, or strategist who can help us bring knowledge and practical solutions to empower the Christian community.

*"Unity comes naturally when we commit to the heart of God. God is 'one.'
When we walk in unity, we reflect who He is."*

The Founder

Guy was born in South Africa, and now lives in Houston, Texas.

Guy's spiritual compass was set to seek God's heart and wisdom for this time. It was clear to Guy, from a young age, that the world was heading for a time of extreme upheaval and change. Guy's life has been largely focused on asking God for strategic wisdom and solutions for this time. The Empowered Kingdom is a ministry that provides answers, strategies, and practical solutions for the Christian community. 1 Kingdom University and the Nehemiah Challenge is an extension of this ministry .

Guy is an author, speaker, visionary, and leadership guide. He is a unique voice for the church and Kingdom for this time.

"The right answers come from asking the right questions. Hosea 4:6 warns, 'My people perish for a lack of knowledge.' A lack of knowledge is often nothing more than an absence of the right questions. Lacking solutions and strategies to counter the negatives of this time is a form of ignorance that indicates that we are not asking the right questions, or having the right conversations. It is time to face the reality of where we are, before we run out of time. It is time to start the conversation, before it is too late."

Nehemiah's Challenge

God laid it on Nehemiah's heart to ask questions others would not ask. He did the ground work and intercession. He developed a plan and a strategy. Jerusalem rose from the rubble because Nehemiah understood how to ask the right questions to take the right action. We do not overcome darkness by fighting with the darkness, or by becoming like the darkness. We switch on the light. This is wisdom, and wisdom is practical. God has given us the power, authority, and identity to be the light. Now is the time for practical wisdom.

“Nehemiah said, “Go and enjoy choice food and sweet drinks, and send some to those who have nothing prepared. This day is holy to our Lord. Do not grieve, for the joy of the LORD is your strength.” – Nehemiah 8:10 (NIV).

Applications

The Parable of the Talents in Matthew 25 tells us that God gives talents to “each according to his ability.” Then God demands that each individual produces a harvest (ROI), based on their gifts. In other words, we are all called to serve in God’s Kingdom. We all have a role to play. This call applies to all Christians including:

Pastors

Elders

Teachers

Life Coaches

Entrepreneurs

Parents

Group Leaders

Investors

Business people

Specialists

Health

Fitness

Mentors

Media

And more...

We all have a role to play.

Business as ministry

“Whatever you do, work at it with your whole being, for the Lord and not for men, because ... you will receive an inheritance from the Lord ... It is the Lord Christ you are serving.” – Colossians 3:23 (BSB).

1. Matthew 25:14-30
2. Deuteronomy 28:1-14

Your business is your calling!

It is important for Christian business people to know the Bible because it contains vital insights and wisdom for you for this time. The first is that God gives each person their specific set of gifts for His purpose – and he expects a return on His investment (ROI).¹ When you understand that your gifting to do business is given to you by God, for His purpose - it transforms everything! Yet, there is very little teaching to help Christian business people and entrepreneurs understand what this really means, and how it can impact your life and change your business forever.

A core mission of the Nehemiah Challenge is to educate and train Christian business leaders and coaches to understand the true power of their gifts and calling to *“be the head and not the tail – always above and never below – to lend to the nations and never borrow.”*²

"We are not powerless! Jesus already has the answers and strategies we need for this time."

"The answers and strategies we need are in His Word. We do have a hope and a future. However, time is running out. The answer is the application of practical wisdom. The problem is we have the mentality of slaves whose city has fallen down and whose nation is lost. Nehemiah's mindset was, 'What do we need to do to rebuild what we have lost?'"

Is this for you?

Do you have a deep-seated concern for our families, churches, nation, and future? Can you see the writing on the wall? Are you praying for God to show us the way, because you recognize that we are all in grave danger?

Are you a Christian who believes that we should be the "head and not the tail ... always above and never below," but wonders why the opposite seems to be true? Will you support positive, life-giving solutions that are based on Biblical principles?

If so, this is for you.

About the name?

The Nehemiah Challenge is named after Nehemiah who was concerned about the state of his nation, its fallen capital, Jerusalem, and the suffering of his people. Nehemiah responded by turning to God, in prayer to petition Him for his people.

Nehemiah served his king, and captor, faithfully. The king was Artaxerxes I of Persia who ruled from 465 to 424 BC. There is a profound lesson here, because Artaxerxes became the sponsor and protector of Nehemiah's mission to rebuild Jerusalem! When Nehemiah was at the king's side, he was nothing more than a cupbearer. However, God saw his integrity, and used him to rebuild a city, which laid the foundation for the rebirth of a nation!

This is an appropriate picture of who Christian business people, entrepreneurs, coaches and leaders are called to be today. If you are in business for the sake of money, you are missing the point. If you are available for God to use you to rebuild broken cities and nations, families, parents, and churches... then Nehemiah's challenge is your challenge too. This is your call.

Respond today.
